

The FCC was created to serve the interests of the American people, not corporate interests! Please do not change the limits the number of radio/TV stations that media companies can own. The general public is just beginning to hear about this issue - you at least have a responsibility to delay the decision until the public has a chance to weigh in on this issue.